
Shang Lung Corrugated Cardboard Making Machine

- Your Reliable Partner for Total Solution!

Shang Lung was set up in 1970 as a professional manufacturer of corrugated cardboard making machines. Corrugated machines are available in working width from 1600mm up to 2500mm with speed range from 120M/min to 250M/min. The complete corrugator line includes mill roll stand, auto splicer, preheater, single facer, overhead bridge, conveyor, glue machine, double backer facer, NC slitter scorer, NC cutter, auto down stacker, and boiler device etc.

Customer Oriented:

From the before-sale consulting, planning, designing, Shang Lung always stands in customer's shoes and tries his best to meet customer's any special requirement. Active after-sale service with technical support provides customers total solution for productivity, quality and outstanding performance.

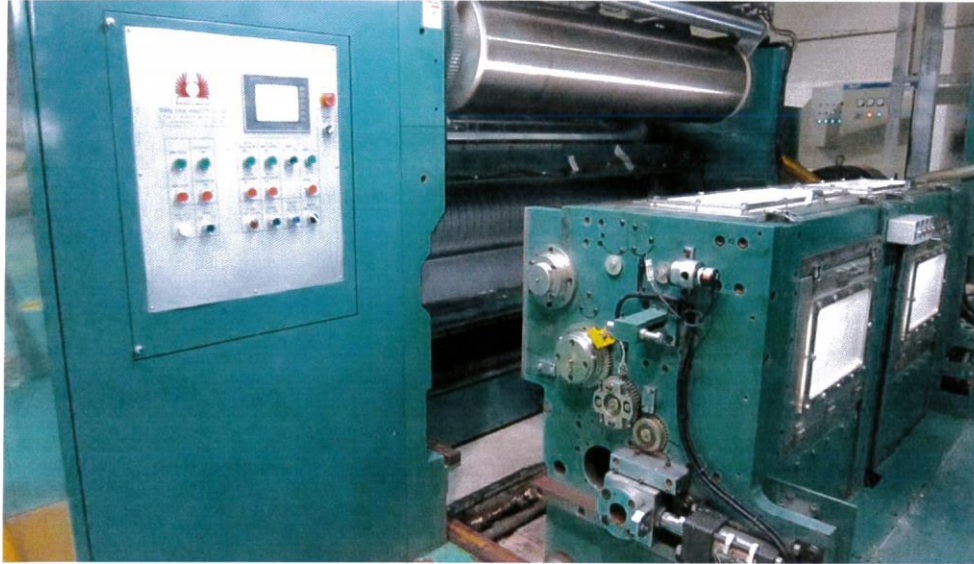

Best Quality:

Quality is of utmost importance to Shang Lung. We continue to refine our quality management process to ensure customers receive quality solutions cost effectively.

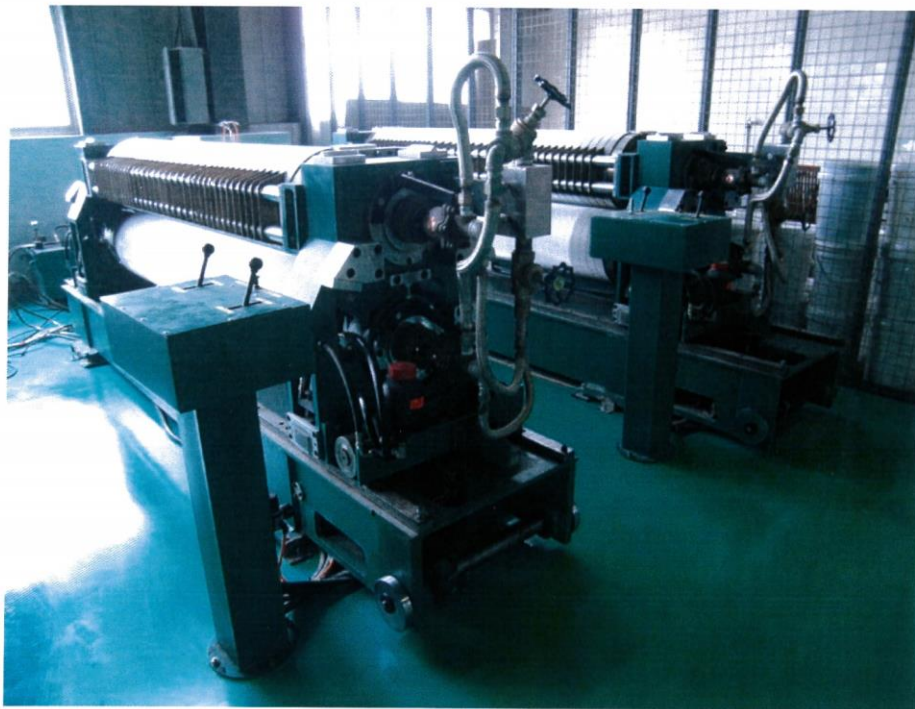

Continually Improving on R&D:

Shang Lung R & D engineers are with rich experience in equipment designing, manufacturing, installation and commissioning. With the concept of "Customer Oriented", their engineers working closely with customers on their problems and requirement, and keep to improve and design the corrugator machines with the character of high productivity, high efficiency, and easy for operation control.

Shang Lung extensive and capability combined with total technology support has earned his high reputation in corrugator industry. Customer success is our success. Shang Lung will be your most reliable partner in your business!

SHANG LUNG CASSETTE TYPE SINGLE FACER (CSF-300)

